

Cynthia S. Mabry Sinusitis/Otolaryngic Allergy Lectureship

The Cynthia Mabry Sinusitis/Otolaryngic Allergy Lectureship was established in 1999 to honor her memory (1937-1999). Cynthia was a long-time active member of SOHN and well respected for her expertise in otolaryngic allergy. She successfully combined the difficult multiple roles of wife, mother, and nurse. As a certified Otorhinolaryngology & Head-Neck nurse, she served as an excellent role model for all colleagues. She was a dedicated otolaryngic allergy nurse who shared her expertise in many ways. She taught numerous allergy courses throughout the world. She was involved in the education of residents in the training program in Dallas. Cynthia lectured at both the national and local levels.

Cynthia co-authored dozens of papers/articles and the textbook, "Allergy In ENT Practice". She was the recipient of the Sam Sanders Award from the American Academy of Otolaryngic Allergy for research in immunotherapy for allergic fungal sinusitis. Cynthia exemplified the essence of the professional nurse and was committed to patient care and to SOHN. She served as President of the Dallas-Fort Worth Chapter.

The recipient of this lectureship will receive cash award and a certificate of recognition and be honored in the event program and post-meeting Update.
